

NGABIRANO VISENSIO

0703187849

PRIMARY FIVE LESSON NOTES

SOCIAL STUDIES

FOR TERM TWO

TOPIC THE PEOPLE OF PRE-COLONIAL UGANDA

- Pre-colonial refers to the period before the coming of foreign rule/foreigners.
- The first inhabitants of Uganda were the Bushmen.
- Later, other ethnic groups migrated into Uganda.
- The bushmen together with other ethnic groups formed the people of pre-colonial Uganda

What is an ethnic group?

- An ethnic group is a group of people who have the same origin and speak related languages.

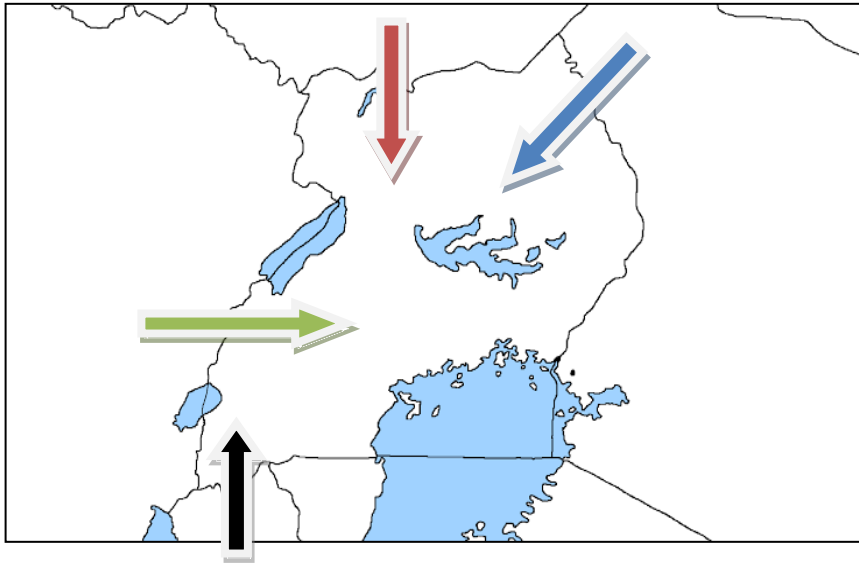

Major ethnic groups in Uganda

- The Bantu
- Nilotes
- Sudanic people
- Hamites

Characteristics of an ethnic group

- Has similar cultural practices and beliefs.
- Has similar economic activities
- Has the same social and political organization.
- Speak similar / related languages.

Map of Uganda showing the coming of ethnic groups.

Bantu

River-Lake Nilotes

Hamites

Highland and plain Nilotes

The Bantu

Who were the Bantu?

- Bantu are the people who speak related languages with a common sound "ntu" while pronouncing the word people in their local languages.
- They also have a variety of words with related sounds e.g. water.
- Bantu were the first group of people to come to Uganda.
- Bantu are said to have migrated from Cameroon highlands in West Africa.
- The main occupation of the Bantu was farming
- The Bantu entered Uganda from the western direction.
- Bantu settled in the interlacustrine region

Interlacustrine region is the region between the great lakes of East Africa.

- The great lakes of East Africa are;
- Lake Victoria
- Lake Kyoga

- Lake Albert
- Lake George
- Lake Tanganyika.
- Lake Edward

Reasons why the Bantu migrated from their homeland

- They were looking for fertile soils for farming.
- They were running away from internal & external conflicts.
- They were looking for areas with reliable rainfall.
- They were running away from tropical diseases.

Why did the Bantu settle in the interlacustrine region?

- Presence of fertile soils for farming.
- Presence of reliable rainfall.

In which way did fertile soils influence Bantu to settle in Uganda?

The fertile soils encouraged them to carry out agriculture.

Tribes that belong to Bantu.

Baganda

Banyankore

Basoga

Batoro

Bakiga

Banyoro

Bagisu

Bafumbira

Baluri

Banyara

Bakonjo

Identify the highland Bantu tribes in Uganda

1. Bagisu
2. Bakonjo
3. Bafumbira
4. Bakiga

Mention four Bantu languages spoken by the Bantu tribes in Uganda.

- I) _____
- II) _____
- III) _____
- IV) _____

Problems that were faced by the Bantu during their migration

- Attacks from wild animals
- Harsh climate
- Shortage of food
- Presence of thick forest
- Presence of mountains and rivers (rough terrain)

Qn: How were thick forests, mountains and rivers affect the ethnic groups during their movements.

It was difficult to cross them

Effects of Bantu migration

- The population increased
- They introduced new culture e.g. New languages
- Some Bantu formed kingdoms
- They introduced new crops like banana
- Led to the displacement of the bushmen
- Introduced iron working and pottery
- Introduced the idea of making bark cloth

THE NILOTES

They are grouped into three:

- i. River-Lake Nilotes
- ii. Plain Nilotes
- iii. Highland Nilotes

THE RIVER -LAKE NILOTES (NILOTICS)

Migrated from Bahr-el-Ghazal region in South Sudan

Movement of River - Lake Nilotes into Uganda

- They entered Uganda from the Northern direction following River Nile
- They first settled at Pubungu present day Pakwach in West Nile
- From Pubungu, the Nilotics split into two groups.
- One group intermarried with the Lendu and formed the Alur who settled in the west Nile.
- The Acholi settled in the Northern part of Uganda.
- A group that was led by Isingoma Rukidi Mpuga moved southwards and entered Bunyoro kingdom.
- This group formed the Luo-Babiito dynasty in Bunyoro.
- The Jopadhola moved east wards and settled in Tororo.
- The Nilotics were mainly cattle keepers (pastoralists)
- The Acholi, Karimojongs and Alur practice de-toothing on the lower jaws.

Qn:

1. Name the Nilotic tribe that lives in eastern Uganda (Tororo district)

Jopadhola

2. Name the Nilotic tribe that is found in Kenya

Jaluo

Causes of their migration

- They were looking for pasture and water
- They were over populated in their homeland.
- They were running away from internal and external conflicts
- Outbreak of famine in their homeland
- Outbreak of epidemic diseases in their homeland.
- Long drought seasons

Results of their migration

- They introduced new language called Luo
- They introduced pet names e.g. Akiiki, Abwoli, Adyeri, Apuli etc.

- The population increased
- They introduced short horned cattle
- They led to the formation of the Luo Babiito dynasty.

Why did the Nilotics change from cattle keeping to mixed farming?

- Presence of fertile soils for farming
- They settled in areas with reliable rainfall for agriculture.

THE PLAIN NILOTES / NILO-HAMITES

- They originated from Southern Ethiopia
- They entered Uganda from North Eastern direction.

Examples of plain Nilotes

- Iteso
- Karimojong
- Kumam
- Kakwa
- Langi

The major occupation of the plain Nilotes was cattle keeping.

THE HAMITES

- They entered Uganda from the south west
- They include:-
 - o Bahima
 - o Batutsi

HIGHLAND NILOTES

- They entered Uganda from north East
- They originated from southern Ethiopia
- They settled around foothills of Mt. Elgon in the present day Kapchorwa
- They highland Nilotes in Uganda include the Sabiny and pokot
- Highland Nilotes were originally cattle keepers and later changed to cultivation (crop growing).

Qn: Why did the highland Nilotes settle on the slopes of Mt. Elgon?

- Presence of fertile volcanic soils
- Presence of reliable rainfall

Crops grown by the Sabiny

- Wheat
- Finger millet
- Maize
- Beans
- Irish potatoes

Today, wheat is the major crop grown in Kapchorwa.

Reasons why the Highland Nilotes migrated

- Love for adventure
- Outbreak of famine
- Long drought season
- They were over populated

Results of Highland Notes and Plain Nilotes

- They introduced new culture
- The population increased
- The plain Nilotes introduced new breeds of cattle
- The plain Nilotes introduced cattle rustling which created insecurity in the neighbouring districts.

THE SUDANIC PEOPLE

- They are found in west Nile
- They were crop farmers and fishermen
- Their origin started in Juba.

Sudanic tribes in Uganda

- Lugbara
- Madi
- Okebu
- Lendu

Reasons for the migration of Sudanic people

- Running away from civil wars
- Outbreak of famine

MIGRATION

It is the movement of people from one place to another for settlement.

Forms of migration

- Internal migration
- External migration

External migration

Emigration (pronounce as "emi.....")

It is the movement of people out of the country to another country for settlement.

Causes of emigration

- Political instability
- Search for better employment

Immigration (pronounce as "immi.....")

It is the movement of people into the country for settlement.

Causes of immigration

- Political instability
- Civil wars
- Search for better employment
- For investment

Advantages of immigration

- It creates employment
- It increases the government revenue
- The natural resources are put into use

- Importation of skilled labour

Disadvantages of immigration

- Leads to shortage of land
- Leads to importation of bad cultures
- Leads to over exploitation of natural resources

Reasons why people leave Uganda for other countries

- Searching for chances of employment
- For further studies
- For adventure
- To get medical treatment

Recent immigration into Uganda

- Rwandans
- Congolese
- Sudanese
- Indians

Reasons why people migrate today

- To look for better medical care
- To look for employment
- To look for better entertainment
- To search for better education
- To look for areas of investment.

Contribution of immigrants to Uganda's development

They have built industries which provide jobs.

They have served as doctors and engineers

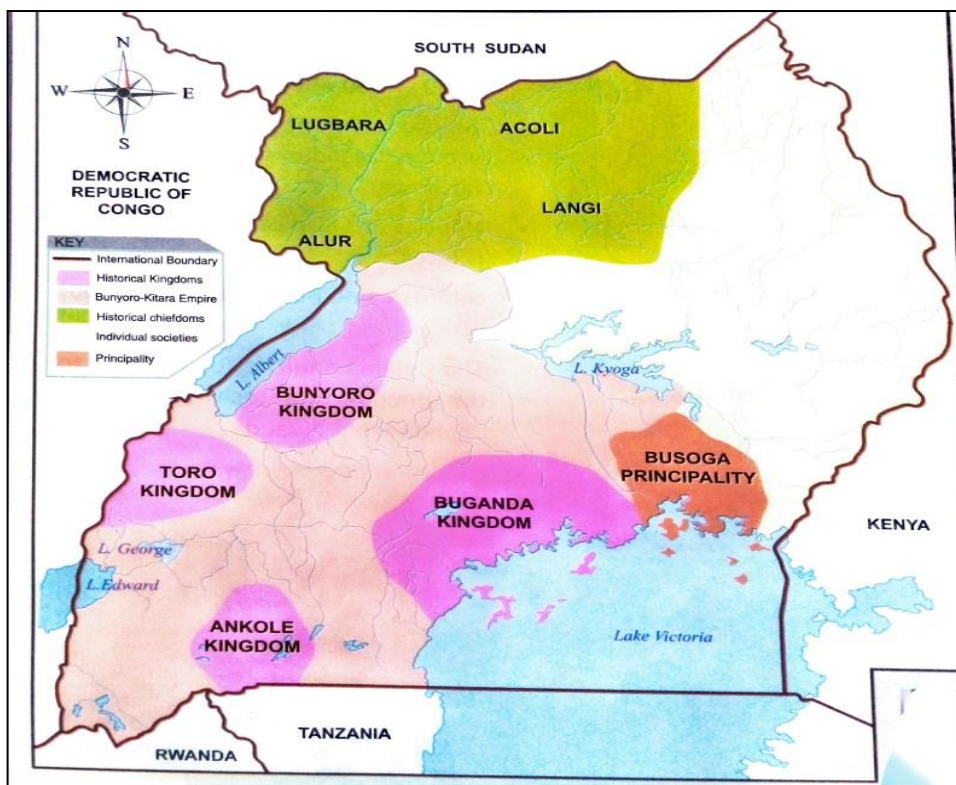

They pay taxes to the government

They have created market for raw materials.

Political organisation of pre-colonial societies

- The people of pre-colonial period were politically organized in the following ways;
- Under Kingdoms
- Under Chiefdoms
- Under principalities
- In Clans
- Under councils of elders

MAP SHOWING BANTU KINGDOMS IN UGANDA

A kingdom is an area ruled by a king or queen

Characteristics of kingdoms

- Each kingdom has one supreme ruler at a time with a title eg kabaka, omukama, omugabe etc.
- Kingship is hereditary.
- Kingdoms have royal regalia.

Examples of royal regalia

- Royal spear
- Royal drums
- Royal tombs
- Royal stools
- Royal arrows
- Royal shields

BUNYORO KITARA EMPIRE

- It was the earliest pre-colonial state in Uganda
- It was founded by the Batembuzi
- The first king of Abatembuzi was Ruhanga and the last was Isaza and his brother Nkya.
- The Bachwezi replaced the Abatembuzi
- The first king of Bachwezi was Ndahura the grandson of Isaza.
- The last king of Bachwezi was Wamala.
- The headquarters of the Bachwezi were at Bigobyamugenyi in Sembabule district.
- The Bachwezi were displaced by the Luo Babito dynasty.
- Both the Batembuzi and Bachwezi are said to have been demigods because they performed some miracles.

Economic contributions of the Bachwezi

- They introduced long horned cattle
- They introduced iron smelting
- They introduced backcloth making
- They introduced coffee growing
- They introduced pottery

Social contributions

- They introduced new games like Omweso.

Political contributions of the Bachwezi

- Introduced the idea of building reed palaces.
- Introduced the centralized system of administration.

Why were the Chwezi and the Tembuzi referred to as demi gods?

1. They possessed supernatural powers.
2. They used to perform miracles.
3. They used to disappear mysteriously
4. They are believed to have fallen from heaven.

Causes for the decline of Bunyoro Kitara

- It was too big to be ruled by one king
- The death of their beloved cow Bihogo
- Internal and external wars
- The coming of the Luo Babito
- Outbreak of epidemic disease
- Outbreak of famine

Qns:

1. How did the size of Bunyoro kitara lead to its decline?
 2. How did climate affect Bunyoro Kitara?
 3. How did the coming of Luo Babito affect Bunyoro Kitara?
- It led to the collapse of Bunyoro Kitara
 - Bigobyamugenyi was the headquarters of Bachwezi

BUGANDA KINGDOM

- It started as a very small kingdom on the northern shores of L Victoria
- It broke away from Bunyoro Kitara
- It was founded by Kato Kimera.

Factors that led to the growth of Buganda Kingdom

- Had a strong leader
- Had a strong army
- Had plenty of food
- It was small in size
- It had fertile soils
- It received reliable rainfall

BUNYORO KINGDOM

- Omukama is the title given to its head.
- Omukama had a lot of powers.
- He appointed chiefs who governed the different parts of the kingdom.
- The chiefs provided omukama with gifts like beer, animals, grains and ivory.
- The kingdom was divided into provinces.

Kings of Bunyoro.

- Sir Tito Owiny
- Omukama Kamurasi
- Omukama Kabalega
- Omukama Kitahimbwa

Omukama Kabalega was the strongest king of Bunyoro.

He had a strong army called Abarusura

Economic activities of Banyoro

- Salt mining
- Iron smelting
- Crop growing
- Cattle keeping

ANKOLE KINGDOM

- Ankole kingdom was formed in south western Uganda
- It traces the origin of the period of Batembuzi
- British colonialists combined other kings together to form Ankole

Examples of such states were

- Kajara
- Igara
- Mpororo
- Buhweju
- It then got its new name Ankole
- Its king was called Omugabe

TORO/TOORO KINGDOM

It broke away from Bunyoro Kitara

It was founded by Prince Kaboyo in 1830

Kaboyo was the eldest son of the Omukama Nyamutukura Kyebambe III of Bunyoro Kingdom.

Reasons why Omukama Kasagama of Toro welcomed Capt. F.D. Lugard

- He wanted to be restored to his throne
- He wanted protection against his enemies.

How did Omukama Kasagama benefit from the coming of Captain Lugard

- He restored him to his throne
- He gave protection against Omukama Kabalega
- He drove Kabalega out of Toro kingdom

BUSOGA CHIEFDOM

- The title given to the king of Busoga is Kyabazinga
- Kadhumbula Wilberforce was the Kyabazinga of Busoga at the time of Uganda's independence in 1962.
- He mobilized his people to support the struggle for independence.
- He later became Uganda's first Vice President

Kingdom/chiefdom	Title of the leader
Buganda	Kabaka
Bunyoro	Omukama
Ankole	Omugabe
Toro	Omukama
Basoga	Kyabazinga
Teso	Emorimor
Acholi	Rwot
Alur	Rwoth

Advantages of kingdoms

- They promote peace and unity

- They promote culture
- Mobilize people for development

Disadvantages of kingdoms

- Promote dictatorship
- Promote the interest of the minority

SOCIAL ORGANISATION OF PRE-COLONIAL PEOPLE

- People were organized in clans.
- The children belong to the clans of their fathers
- On the side of religion, people worshipped small gods eg Kiwanuka, Mukasa, Kibuuka, Muwanga etc
- Traditional religious leaders such as rain makers, medicine men and fortune tellers got a lot of respect.
- Education was passed through stories, songs, riddles and it was done by all elders in the society.
- They had language, names, customs, clans, totems, values, games.
- People carried out hunting.

Myth

- It is a story that is told to explain about the mysteries of the world. Such stories tell how the earth and life began, the origin of death, day and night, rain drought

Economic organisation of pre-colonial rule

- People grew their food
- People reared their animals
- People practiced barter trade on a small scale
- People made their clothes from the bark of mutuba tree.
- People carried out pottery.

Barter trade

It is the exchange of goods for goods or goods for services

Advantages of barter trade

- It doesn't involve money
- It promotes friendship

Disadvantages of barter trade

- It is difficult to get a customer
- It is difficult to carry bulky goods

Barter trade items included: -

- Bark cloth
- Salt

Culture

Culture refers to the way of life and beliefs of a given society.

Types of culture

Material culture; this is the type of culture which involves physical things.

Examples of material culture

- Royal spear, Royal drums, Royal stools, arrows, shields, bark cloth

Non material culture; this is the type of culture which does not involve material things.

Examples of non material culture

Names, norms, beliefs, language, taboo, religion.

Examples of cultural practices

Naming

Circumcision

Funeral rites

Traditional marriage

Types of values

- Personal values
- Family values
- Community values

- God fearing
- Cleanliness
- Law abiding
- Helpfulness

Relationships

The term relationship refers to the way of living with each other.

Types of relationships

- Blood relationship
- Peer relationship
- Marriage relationship

TOPIC

FOREIGN INFLUENCE IN UGANDA

Foreign influence refers to the ways outsiders affected or changed Ugandans in their way of life.

Foreigners are people who are not citizens to a particular country

Foreigners in Uganda came from two continents that is Asia and Europe

Groups of foreigners in Uganda

- Traders
- Explorers
- Missionaries
- Administrators

Traders

These were the first foreigners to enter Uganda. Traders came in two groups

- Asians from Asia
- European traders from Europe

Asian traders

These were;

- Arab traders

- Indian traders

Arab traders

- Arabs were the first group of foreigners to come to Uganda
- They came from Saudi Arabia in the continent of Asia
- They used their boats called dhows to cross Indian ocean.
- The monsoon winds helped them to blow their dhows to the coast of East Africa.
- The Arabs first settled at the coast of East Africa.
- The first Arab traders to come to Uganda were led by Ahmad Bin Ibrahim. Ahmad Bin Ibrahim therefore was the first Arab trader to come to Buganda in 1844.
- Kabaka Sunna II of Buganda received the first Arab traders in Buganda.

Reasons why the Arabs came to Uganda

- The Arabs came to Uganda majorly to carryout trade.
- They came to spread Islamic religion.
- They were running away from religious wars in Saudi Arabia.

Goods (items) brought to Uganda by Arabs to Uganda

- Cloths
- Cups
- Mirrors
- Necklaces
- Beads
- Guns
- Glasses
- Some crops

Goods taken by Arabs from Uganda

- Slaves
- Ivory
- Salt
- Iron
- Skins

- Food stuffs

Effects of the coming of Arabs in Uganda

Positive

- They introduced cowrie shells which were used in trade as the first form of money.
- They introduced new goods (e.g. cloths, beads, etc)
- They introduced Islam.
- They introduced new crops (e.g. mangoes, rice etc)
- Trade activities increased.
- They developed trade routes in Uganda
- Chiefdoms developed into kingdoms and empires.
- Their coming resulted into kiswahili language and culture (dressing styles)

Negative

- They introduced slave trade in Uganda
- Slave trade increased wars among communities in Uganda
- People lost their lives through slave trade
- They caused disunity among people

Why Islam took long to spread in Uganda

- The Arabs were more interested in trade
- The Arabs were hated for being slave traders
- Islam was preached in foreign language which proved hard to the natives.
- Arabs were not favoured by the colonialists
- People feared the practice of circumcision

SLAVE TRADE AND SLAVERY

Slave trade is the buying and selling of human beings.

Slavery is the illegal owning of a person by another person

How slaves were obtained by Arabs

- By raiding villages
- Through inter-tribal wars
- By direct buying(barter trade)

Why slave trade developed in Uganda

- There was need for labour at the coast and the other countries
- The Arab traders and African chiefs wanted money
- The African chiefs wanted guns for defense and expansion
- Disunity among communities in Uganda

Why slave trade took long to come to an end

- There was need for human labour to carry goods to the coast.
- African chiefs and kings supported it

Effects of slave trade in Uganda

- Population decrease
- Uganda lost strong men and women
- A lot of suffering and death was experienced
- Property was destroyed
- Families split up
- It led to famine
- Slave trade caused wars among communities.

Positive

- Kingdoms developed
- New crops were introduced
- New items were introduced

INDIAN TRADERS

- This was another group of Asian traders
- Indian traders came from India
- They came to carryout trade
- Allidina Visram was the first Indian trader to open up a shop in Kampala
- Indians introduced Rupees as a form of money
- Rupees replaced the cowrie shells that was introduced by the Arabs

Other important Indian traders include

Mehta khalidas

- He established the first sugarcane plantation in Uganda at Lugazi in 1924.

Muljibai Madhvani

- He started Kakira sugar plantation at Jinja
- Later other Indians came to build the Uganda railway.
- These were the Indian coolies (prisoners)

Effects of Indians in Uganda

- They introduced rupees in Uganda
- They started sugarcane growing in Uganda
- They started the banking system (Banyans / Indian money lenders)
- They set up sugar factories in Uganda
- They set up ginneries
- They increased business in Uganda
- They controlled all the economy of Uganda

The Indians were later expelled from Uganda by President Idi Amin Dada in 1972

THE COMING OF EUROPEANS TO UGANDA

Europeans came to Uganda in four groups and these were;

- Explorers
- Missionaries
- Traders
- Colonialists

The European explorers who came to Uganda

An explorer is a person who travels to unknown places to find more information about it.

The explorers were the first group of Europeans to come to Uganda.

Why the explorers came to Uganda

- They came to look for the source of river Nile

- They came to know more about Uganda
- Most of these explorers were sent by the Royal Geographical Society (RGS)
- The Royal Geographical Society funded (financed) the explorers' journeys in Uganda

Examples of explorers who came to Uganda

John Hanning Speke

- John Speke made two journeys to Uganda
- His two journeys were sponsored by the Royal Geographical Society

John Speke and Richard Burton 1856 – 1858 (he came with John Speke but didn't reach Uganda)

- They came to look for the source of the Nile
- They reached Tabora in 1857
- They reached Lake Tanganyika in February 1858.
- They became the first European explorers to see L.Tanganyika in Tanzania.
- They visited chief Kimweri of Usambara
- John Speke left Burton at Tabora and moved north words after discovering L.Tanganyika.
- John Speke reached the shores of lake Nalubaale on 30th July 1858
- He named it lake Victoria after Queen Victoria of UK(United Kingdom)
- Before John Speke came, the lake was called Nyanza in Tanganyika, Nalubaale in Uganda
- He believed that this lake was the source of the Nile
- He was also the first European explorer to come to Uganda
- On returning home they developed a disagreement about the source of the Nile with Richard Burton

John Speke and James Grant (1860 – 1863)

- John Speke made his second journey with James Grant
- He came to confirm his discovery of the source of the Nile on Lake Victoria
- They were escorted by two gun men from the coast
- These escorts were Mwinyi Mabruki and Sidi Bombay

- They passed through the kingdom of Karagwe
- They were received by king Rumanika of Karagwe
- Grant fell sick and was left behind by Speke
- John Speke arrived at Kabaka Muteesa's palace at Banda in 1862.
- John Speke reached the source of the Nile on 28th July 1862.
- John Speke became the first European explorer to see the source of the Nile
- He named the falls at the source the Ripon falls.
- He named the falls after Lord Ripon the president of Royal Geographical Society in Britain at that time.

Sir Samuel Baker (The Bakers)

- He looked for the source of R. Nile starting from its mouth.
- He came with his wife Florence Baker.
- He was the first European explorer to come with his wife
- John Speke and James Grant met Sir Samuel Baker at Gondokoro in south Sudan.
- They told him that they had discovered the source of river Nile
- He changed his journey and moved Westwards up to Omukama Kamurasi's palace in Bunyoro
- He became the first European explorer to see Lake Mwitanzige
- He named it Lake Albert after the husband of Queen Victoria of UK
- He also became the first European explorer to see the Murchison falls in 1864.

Henry Morton Stanley

- He was sent by New York Herald and British Daily Telegraph newspapers
- He made three journeys to Africa
- He entered Uganda through Tanganyika
- On his first journey he was sent to look for Dr. David Livingstone
- On his second journey he came to complete the work of other explorers.
- Stanley went westwards and named mountain Rwenzori the mountains of the moon because of its snow which looked like a rising moon.

- He circumnavigated (sailed around) Lake Victoria and proved that it was the source of River Nile
- Stanley visited the Kabaka of Buganda (Muteesa I) and convinced him to invite missionaries.
- Muteesa I requested Henry Stanley Morton to write a letter on his behalf inviting missionaries to Uganda
- Stanley came for the third time to rescue Emin Pasha

Problems faced by explorers

- Language difficulty/ barrier
- They experienced shortage of supplies like drugs, food etc
- They were attacked by tropical diseases
- They were attacked by unfriendly tribes
- Poor means of transport and communication
- Harsh climatic conditions
- Attacks from man eaters/ dangerous wild animals.
- Stanley moved towards western Uganda and became the first European to see Mt. Rwenzori, L. Edward and L. George

Effect of the coming of the explorers

- Their reports encouraged traders and administrators to come to Uganda
- Brought new goods in form of special gifts
- They made Uganda known to outside world.
- They renamed Uganda's physical features.

MISSIONARIES

- These were the second group of European foreigners to come to Uganda
- A missionary is a person who leaves his land to go to a foreign land to spread the word of God.

Reasons why missionaries came to Uganda

- To teach people reading and writing / promote formal education
- To spread Christianity.

- To promote western civilization

They came in two major groups

- Protestants
- Catholics

Protestants missionaries

- They were the first group to come to Uganda
- They were sent by the church missionary society (CMS)
- They are also called Anglican missionaries
- They were led by C T Wilson and Shergold Smith and O'Neil
- They arrived here in 1877.
- They were later joined by Alexander Mackay in 1878.
- Alexander Mackay was carpenter, builder & teacher.
- He brought the first printing press in Uganda
- Other important protestant missionaries include;

Dr Albert Cook

- He built the first missionary hospital in Uganda at Mengo
- He tried to control the spread of sleeping sickness around the shores of Lake Victoria

Kenneth Borup

He introduced the fast growing cotton seeds called American upland variety in 1903.

Robert Ashe

Brought the first Raleigh bicycle.

Bishop James Hannington

- He died in Busoga on his way to Buganda under the order of Mwanga
- He was killed because he used a route which was considered a back door while entering Buganda
- He was killed at chief Luba's palace

Apollo Kivebulaaya

- He was a Muganda missionary
- He spread Christianity in Western Uganda and Eastern Democratic Republic of Congo.

The Roman Catholic missionaries (White fathers)

- They came from France and arrived in Uganda in 1879.
- They were led Father Simeon Lourdel and Brother Amans Delmas.
- They were later joined by Fr. Leon, Livinchac and Ludoric Girault and Fr. Leon Barbot
- They were sent by Cardinal Kavengerie of missionaries of Africa and Algeria.

Other groups of catholic missionaries included

- Holy ghost father
- Mill hill fathers
- White fathers
- Comboni fathers

Problems that were faced by missionaries in Uganda

- Language difficulty/ barrier
- They experienced shortage of supplies like drugs, food etc
- They were attacked by tropical diseases
- They were attacked by unfriendly tribes
- Poor means of transport and communication
- Harsh climatic conditions
- Attacks from man eaters/ dangerous wild animals.

Ways the missionaries overcame some of the problems they faced

- They learnt Kiswahili and other local languages.
- They taught Ugandans how to preach to fellow Ugandans.

Positive effects of missionary work

- They introduced Christianity
- They introduced formal education

- They introduced new crops e.g. cotton
- They built hospitals
- They built schools

Negative effects

- They preached against traditional cultures
- They led to religious wars
- They paved way for the coming of colonialists
- They led religious divisions

Formal education

This is the type of education introduced by Europeans. It replaced the informal Type of education.

Persecution of Christian converts

Before Muteesa I died, he had developed a dislike towards missionaries.

Why did Muteesa I invite missionaries to Uganda

- To teach his people reading and writing
- He expected missionaries to give him guns for protection
- To teach his people Christianity.

Why Muteesa I developed a dislike for the missionaries

- They disobeyed his orders.
- They preached against the traditional practices and culture
- They never brought for him guns as he expected.

Who is a martyr?

- This is a person who dies for his or her faith.
- The first three Christian martyr were killed at Nateete near Busega
- These were;
 - o Makko Kakumba
 - o Nuwa Sserwanga
 - o Yusufu Lugalama

Write down a list of the Christian martyrs.

- The massive killing of the martyrs was at Namugongo
- The largest number of martyrs was killed on 3rd June
- This is why Christians in Uganda and neighbouring countries commemorate (Remember) the 3rd June every year.
- King Mwanga of Buganda ordered for the killing of the Christian converts.

Why?

- They disobeyed his orders

NB:

- The chief executioner was Mukajjanga

Pope Paul VI came to Uganda in 1969 to canonise the Uganda Martyrs

- Arch Bishop Luwum was also killed in 1972 by Idi Amin Dada
- He was declared a martyr by the Anglican church of England
- Bishop was the first African Anglican bishop in Uganda
- He is the last martyr to be killed.

EUROPEAN TRADERS

These were the third group of Europeans to come to Uganda
They came to carryout trade.

William Mackinnon

He was a British trader

He formed the imperial British East African Association in 1888.

The Association got a charter in 1888 and became the Imperial British East Africa Company (IBEACO)

It had its headquarters at Machakos in Kenya

Captain Fredrick Lugard

- He was a British trader
- He was sent to Uganda to represent IBEACO in 1890.
- He set up his headquarters at Old Kampala
- He built Fort Edward on Old Kampala hill.

- He signed a partition treat with Kabaka Mwanga
- He signed a friendship agreement with Omugabe Ntare of Ankole in 1890.
- Lugard restored Omukama Kasagama of Toro on his throne
- Lugard brought the Sudanese soldiers to Uganda
- He wanted them to help him fight wars and ensure stability and peace in Buganda

Why IBEACO was formed.

- To promote trade in the main land
- To protect British interests in Uganda
- To stop slave trade
- To develop communication and transport network in Uganda
- To promote peace and security

IBEACO collapsed because it became bankrupt

Why IBEACO ran bankrupt

- It lacked a reliable and potential source of income
- It got so involved in the political administration which was costly
- The territory controlled was too large to be maintained properly
- It employed many personnel that needed big pay.

COLONIALISTS/COLONISTS

- This was the fourth group of Europeans to come to Uganda
- They came from Europe
- The first European country to attempt colonizing Uganda was Germany
- Germany sent Carl Peters to Uganda who signed a treaty with Mwanga demanding to have full control over Uganda 1890.

Reasons why colonialists came to Uganda

- They wanted to get raw materials for their home industries.
- They wanted to establish their countries rule in Uganda.

Sir Gerald Portal

- He was sent to make a report on how best Uganda could be ruled in 1893

- He built forts in Toro (Fort Portal) and at Entebbe (Fort Alice)
- He established his headquarters at Entebbe making it the first capital city of Uganda
- He recommended that the Britain would talk over direct control of Uganda.
- Uganda was declared a British protectorate in 1894 by Lord Rosebery

Protectorate

- It is a weak country controlled by a powerful country for economic interests.

Colonialism

This is a practice where a powerful country takes control over/ rules a weaker country.

Colony

It is a weak country controlled by a powerful country for permanent settlement. The foreigners who ruled a colony are called colonialists/colonists.

Egypt's attempt to colonize Uganda

- Egypt was the first African country which tried to colonize Uganda.

Reason why Egypt wanted to colonize Uganda

- Egypt wanted to control R. Nile from its source to the mouth.
- Egypt used European influence in its attempt to colonize Uganda.
- Khedive Ismail the ruler of Egypt by then tried to colonize Uganda basing at the Equatoria province.
- The Equatoria Province was the region made up of southern Sudan and northern Uganda
- The leaders of this province were called governors who were appointed by khedive Ismail.

Governors of the Equatoria province

Sir Samuel Baker

- He was the first governor of the Equatoria province. (Mark Equatoria)

- He established his headquarters at Patiko in northern Uganda where he helped so much in the fight against slave trade.
- Sir Samuel Baker gave guns to the people of Acholi to protect themselves against slave traders.
- Other forts built by Baker include Padibe and Foweira
- He tried to bring Bunyoro under the control of Egypt. However, he was defeated by Omukama Kabalega.

Ways how Sir Samuel Baker helped the people of Acholi land

- He fought slave trade in Northern Uganda

Colonel Charles Gordon.

- This was the second governor of the Equatoria province.
- He tried to put Buganda under Egyptian rule. However, he was defeated by Kabaka Muteesa I.

Eduard Schnitzer / Emin Pasha

- This was the third and last governor of the Equatoria province.
- He built fort Wadelai in Acholi.
- He tried to bring northern Uganda under Egyptian control.
- He was hated by the Acholi due to his failure to control the soldiers who took them as slaves.

Resistance to colonial rule

Kabalega's resistance

- Never wanted British rule in his kingdom
- Wanted to protect Bunyoro's independence
- He used his army of the Abarusura but they were defeated by Colonel Henry Colville
- Kabalega was arrested and exiled to Seychelles islands in the Indian Ocean
- While on his way back on 6th April 1923 he died on the way at Mpumudde near Jinja.

Mwanga's revolt

- He was not happy with Uganda's involvement in the politics of his kingdom
- He wanted to send away the missionaries who were dividing his people and making his subject disobey his orders.
- Mwanga was defeated by the British captured and exiled with Kabalega to Seychelles island
- The British replaced him with his young son Daudi Chwa II
- He later died in 1907 while in exile

Lamogi rebellion 1911 – 1912

This was staged by the people of Acholi against the British

It was led by chief Awich of Payera

Causes

The Acholi never wanted to register their guns

Awich wanted to protect his independence

Nyangire rebellion

- The word Nyangire means "I have refused"
- It was staged by the Banyoro
- The Banyoro never wanted Baganda agents to rule them.
- Banyoro fought the Baganda agents who fled to Hoima
- Finally governor Henry Colville sent troops and they defeated Bunyoro

TOPIC

HOW UGANDA BECAME A NATION

A nation is a group of people living together under one geographical and political boundary and under one leader.

Types of nations

Monolithic nation: is a type of nation with a group of people having the same origin & a common language. e.g. Rwanda etc

Heterogeneous nation: is a type of nation with many groups of people having different origins & languages. e.g. Uganda, Kenya and Tanzania.

Methods / ways Uganda was made a nation.

- Signing treaties / agreements
- Using force
- Using agents / collaborators

Agreements

THE 1900 BUGANDA AGREEMENT (March 10th)

- It was signed between the Buganda kingdom and the British protectorate government
- Sir Harry Johnston signed on behalf of the British government
- Sir Apollo Kaggwa signed on behalf of the Buganda kingdom
- The agreement was signed during the rule of Kabaka Daudi Chwa II
- Daudi Chwa II did not sign the agreement because he was very young (was born August 8th, 1896)
- He was ruling under regents (helpers)
- A regent is a person who rules a kingdom on behalf of a young king / Queen.

The helpers / regents were;

1. Sir Apollo Kaggwa (Prime Minister)
2. Stanslas Mugwanya (Chief Justice)
3. Zakaria Kisingiri (Treasurer)

Terms (issues) of the agreement

- Land
- Taxation
- Government / administration

The agreement was negotiated by Alfred Tucker, Bishop of Uganda.

Effects or results or outcomes of the 1900 Buganda agreement

- Land was divided into mailo and crown land (crown for the British and Mailo for the Kingdom)
- Buganda kingdom was divided into 20 counties
- Buganda's boundaries were fixed.

- Hut and gun taxes were introduced.
- Kabaka's powers were reduced.
- The Lukiiko was given more powers.

TORO AGREEMENT OF 1900

- It brought Toro under the British protectorate
- Sir Harry Johnston signed on behalf of the British government and Omukama Kasagama with his senior chiefs signed on behalf of Toro kingdom.

How did Toro benefit from the 1900 Agreement?

It confirmed Toro's independence from Bunyoro

Ankole agreement (1901)

- It was signed between the British and Omugabe Kahaya of Ankole
- Ankole was given the counties of Buhweju, Igara, Bunyaruguru and Kajara.
- Nuwa Mbaguta was the prime minister at that time

Effects of the 1901 Ankole agreement

- Hut and gun tax were introduced.
- Ankole was given the territories of Buhweju, Kajara etc

Resolutions of the 1901 Ankole agreement

- The British control over Ankole was confirmed.
- The British agreed to protect the omugabe against the claimants of the kingdom's throne.

COLLABORATORS

1. Nuwa Mbaguta

- He helped to fight illiteracy in Ankole
- He started the building of roads in Ankole
- He planted trees in Ankole to improve on the environment

2. Semei Kakungulu

- He extended the British rule in Eastern and northern Uganda

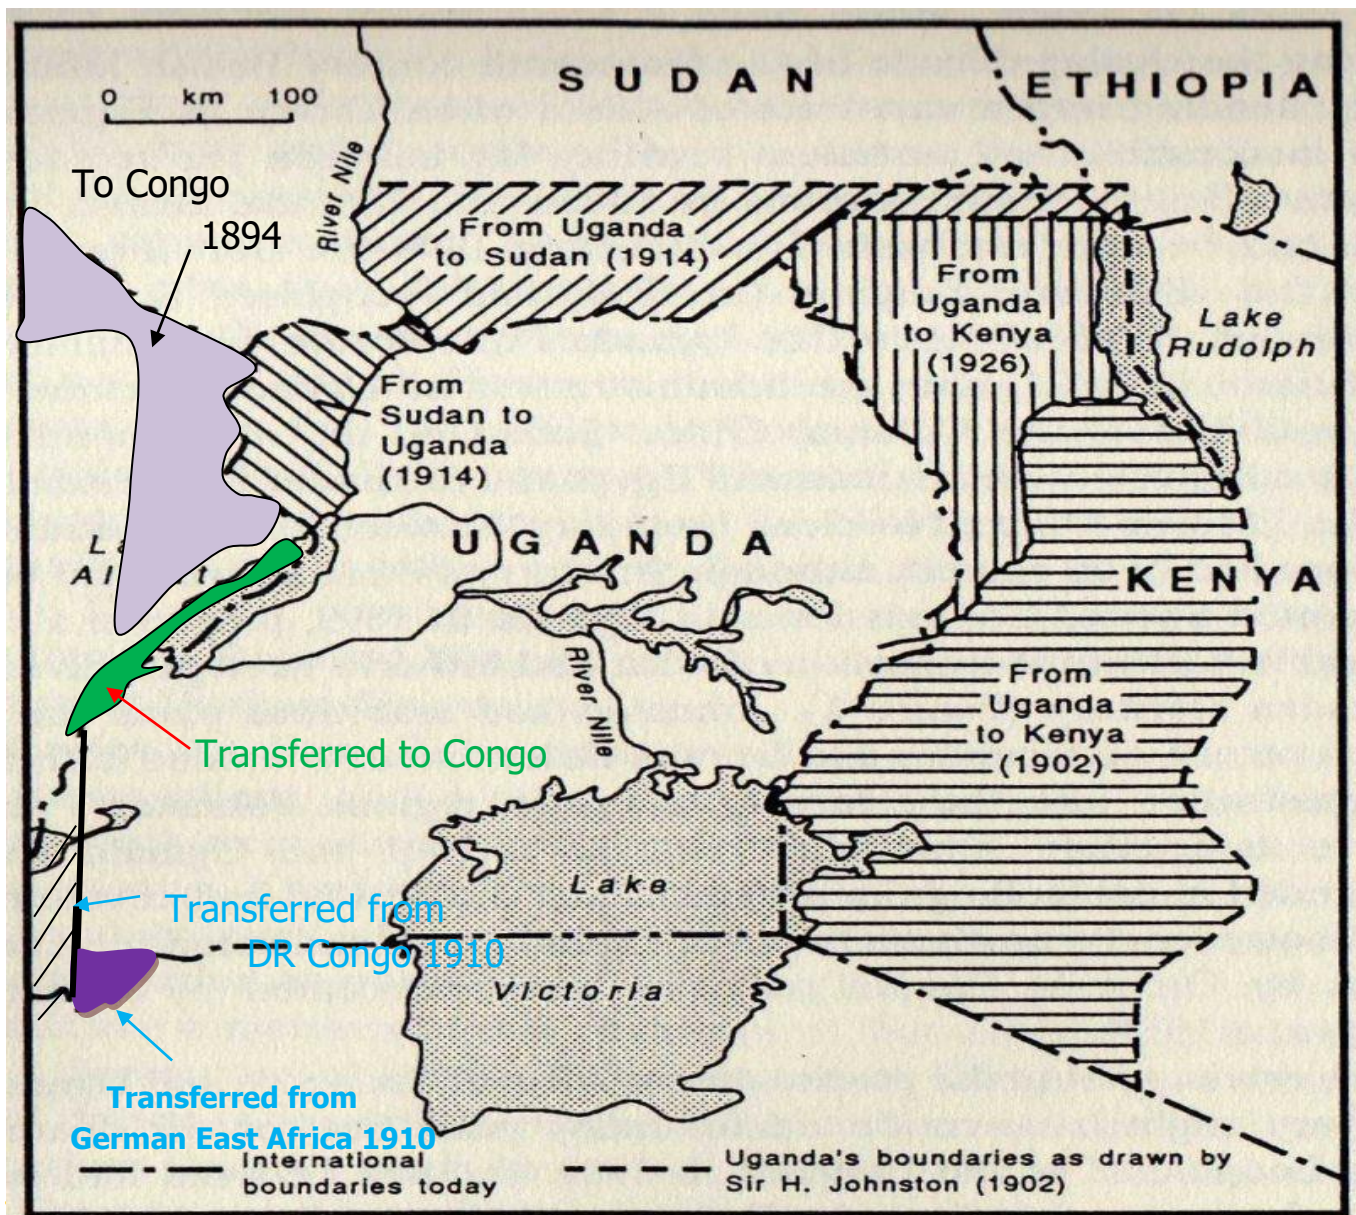

- He signed treaties with the native chiefs in Eastern Uganda
- He built his headquarters at Budaka
- He helped the British to arrest Kabalega and Mwanga
- He planted Mvule trees to improve on the environment
- He built roads in Eastern Uganda

3. Sir Apollo Kaggwa – He signed the 1900 agreement

FIXING THE BOUNDARIES OF UGANDA

- Uganda was declared a British protectorate in 1894.
- Present day Uganda is smaller compared to Uganda before the fixing of boundaries in 1926.

A map of Uganda showing evolution of Uganda's boundaries

Why some parts were removed or given to Uganda

- Nyanza province was given to Kenya in 1902
 - To have the Nandi and Masai under one government
 - To put the Uganda railway under one administration
 - To allow Uganda concentrate on the development of north – eastern region.
- West Nile from Sudan to Uganda in 1914
 - To have maximum control over the Nile
- North Eastern part from Uganda to Kenya 1926
 - To separate the Karimojong and the Turkana
- Lando enclave from Uganda to Sudan 1914
 - To separate the Sudanese from the Acholi

Negative effects of fixing boundaries of Uganda

- Tribes were separated for example there are Luo in Kenya and Uganda
- Families were split
- Uganda became smaller.

SYSTEMS OF COLONIAL ADMINISTRATION

- Indirect rule
- Direct rule
- In Uganda the British used Indirect rule
- Captain Frederick Lugard proposed the idea of using indirect rule

Indirect rule

- Indirect rule was the type of rule where colonialists used African leaders to rule on their behalf.
- In Uganda, indirect rule was used in the kingdoms of Toro, Buganda, and Ankole.

Why did the British use indirect rule

- It was cheaper than direct rule
- It reduced rebellions

- It solved the problem of language problem
- It did not interrupt with cultural practices
- They lacked enough manpower

Disadvantages of indirect rule

- Native leaders lost full control of their territories
- Native leaders were used as puppets
- It caused division among natives

Direct rule

This is where colonialists ruled Africans on their own.

In Uganda, direct Rule was used in areas which did not have local leaders and those areas which resisted e.g. Bunyoro, Kigezi,

How Ugandans resisted colonial rule

- By staging rebellions
- Boycotting British goods

Reasons for the introduction of crop growing in Uganda

- To get raw materials for their industries
- To enable Ugandans to get income to pay taxes

COMMISSIONERS

Colonel Sir Henry Colville

- He fought and defeated Kabalega
- He brought Bunyoro under British rule

Sir Harry Johnston

- He was last British commissioner in Uganda
- He signed the 1900 Buganda agreement on behalf of the British government

SOME BRITISH GOVERNORS

Sir Hesketh Bell

- He was the first governor in Uganda

- He encouraged the growing of cash crops
- He introduced the first ford car in Uganda
- He fought sleeping sickness in Uganda
- He linked the railway line from Jinja to Namasagali
- He constructed ports on Lake Victoria, Albert, and Kyoga.

Sir Frederick Jackson

- He ruled during the first world war
- He started the construction of Mulago hospital
- He overcame the Lamogi rebellion

Sir Robert Thorne Coryndon

He established the Legislative Council in 1921

Sir Geoffrey F. Archer

He opened Makerere College in 1922

Sir Philip Mitchell

He turned Makerere College into a university in 1935 to promote higher Education

Sir John Hathon Hall (1944 – 1952)

Africans joined Legco during his reign

The first political parties were formed during his term in office

Sir Andrew Cohen (1952 – 1957)

He exiled Kabaka Muteesa II in 1953

Nyanza textile was built during his time

Owen falls dam was completed during his term of office

He started the construction of parliamentary building and Radio Uganda

Sir Frederick Crawford

He organized the first general elections in 1958

He completed the construction of parliamentary building

Sir Walter Coutts

He was the last colonial governor of Uganda

He organized the last general elections to independence

Characteristics of colonial system

- Foreign laws / colonial laws
- Taxation
- Segregation
- Colonial economy
- Forced labour

Foreign laws

These are some of the laws introduced by the colonialists

- i) No Africans were allowed to own or carry a gun
- ii) Africans were to give labour whenever government needed it.
- iii) Africans were not to export cash crops
- iv) Registration of the birth, death and marriage

Taxation

- i) Hut tax of rupees was to be paid by each homestead
- ii) Gun tax was to be paid by gun owners

Qn. Why did the colonialists introduce taxes?

Segregation

- Discrimination of people according to race, sex or social status
- Segregation in Uganda during colonial rule appeared
- The whites and Asians had better services than Africans.

The colonial economy

The colonial system changed Uganda's economy to cash economy.

Qn:

State reasons why the British introduced cash crop growing

- They wanted raw-materials

- To get income
- They wanted to stop Uganda from depending on Britain.

Give any two results of introducing cash crops to Uganda

- It led to industrialization
- It led to the extension of the Uganda railway to different parts of Uganda.

Exercise

1. What is a nation?
.....
2. Under which type of a nation is Uganda?
.....
3. How did Uganda become a nation?
.....
4. Give a reason why it was important for the Colonialists to separate the Karimojong from the Turkana in 1926.
.....
5. Why was Kabaka Daudi Chwa II unable to sign the 1900 Buganda Agreement?
.....
6. Give any one negative effect of fixing the boundaries of Uganda.
.....
7. Give two ways how Ugandans resisted Colonial rule.
 - i.
 - ii.
8. Write any three contributions of Sir Hesketh Bell to Uganda.
 - i.
 - ii.
 - iii.

TOPIC

THE ROAD TO INDEPENDENCE IN UGANDA

Independence means freedom from political control from other countries.

THE INDEPENDENCE OF UGANDA

- Independence in Uganda was obtained peacefully

Formation of the Legislative Council

- It was formed in 1921 to make laws for Uganda during the time of Governor Robert Thorne Coryndon.
- At first Africans were not represented until 1945.
- It was composed of Asians and Europeans.
- In 1945 the first three Africans were appointed from the regions of Uganda

These were

- o Central region – Kawalya Kaggwa
- o Western region – Petero Nyangabyaki Akiiki
- o Eastern region – Yekonia Zirabamuzaale
- In 1946, Yekosofati Innyon was nominated to represent the northern region.
- The first Africans were nominated / appointed to LEGCO on 1945 during the region of governor Sir John Hathorn Hall
- Most of its members were of British and Asians

They feared that the British would merge Uganda and Kenya to make East African Federation.

How Africans demanded for independence

- They staged demonstrations
- They organized riots and strikes
- They formed political parties and trade unions
- A series of conferences were organized in London and some Ugandans attended

- Mr. JV Wild chaired the committee which organized the first general elections
- Uganda got self-government in 1961 led by Ben Kiwanuka
- The London conference was organized in 1961
- On 9th October 1962 Uganda attained independence
- He was the first prime minister of independent Uganda
- In 1963 Edward Muteesa II was appointed first non-executive president of Uganda and deputized by Nadiope Wilberforce.
- DP, UPC and UNC participated in the first elections
- The duke of Kent handed over the instruments of power to elected prime minister Milton Obote
- Uganda attained her independence through forming political parties
- UPC and KY made an alliance to win DP in the elections that brought Obote as the first Prime Minister of independent Uganda

Kabaka crisis

- In 1953 Sir Andrew Cohen the governor of Uganda by then sent Muteesa II in exile
- He was exiled for;-
 - o Demanding of Buganda's separate independence
 - o Rejected the idea of proposed East African Federation
 - o He refused the Lukiiko to send representatives to the LEGCO
- This led to political unrest in Uganda

How Buganda demanded for the return of the Kabaka from exile

- The Uganda National Congress and Uganda National Movement Organized demonstrations and boycotts.
- They sent petitions to the government in Britain
- They boycotted European goods and British cars.

The Namirembe agreement

- In 1954, Sir Keith Hancock came from Britain and held meeting with the officials from Buganda kingdom and this meeting resulted in the signing of the Namirembe agreement.

- Michael Kintu signed on behalf of Buganda and Keith Hancock signed on behalf of the British.

Resolutions of the Namiembe Agreement

- The Kabaka was to return from exile to his kingdom.

FORMATION OF POLITICAL PARTIES

- A political party is an organization whose members have same political aims and ideas.
- A political party is a group of people with the same objective of leading a country.

Why were many political parties formed in the early 1950's?

- They were mainly formed to unite Ugandans so as to demand for independence

Uganda National Congress (UNC)

- It was first National Political party to be formed in 1952
- It was formed by Ignatius Kangave Musaazi.
- Other prominent members were Jolly Joe Kiwanuka & Abu Mayanja.

Why was UNC formed?

- To unite Ugandans and demand for Uganda's independence
- To promote democracy in Uganda.
- Later it collapsed and its members joined other parties
- I K Musaazi died in 1990 and his body was buried at Heroes ground Kololo airstrip

DEMOCRATIC PARTY

- It was started in 1954 also to demand for Uganda's independence
- It was mainly dominated by Catholics
- It was founded by Joseph Kasolo
- In 1956 Matayo Mugwanya took over leadership

- In 1958 Benedicto Kiwanuka became the leader of DP
- DP won the first general elections in 1961 and Ben Kiwanuka became the first chief minister of Uganda before independence.

UGANDA PEOPLE'S CONGRESS (U P C)

- It was founded March in 1960
- It was led by Dr. Apollo Milton Obote
- Its main objective was to unite Ugandans and lead them to independence.
- In 1962 general elections, UPC won DP after making an alliance with Kabaka Yekka Party.
- Obote became the first executive Prime minister of Uganda.
- He later became the first executive president of Uganda.

KABAKA YEKKA (KY)

- It was formed to promote the interests of Buganda and the Kabaka
- It was formed in 1961 by Sepiriya Masembe and Augustine Kamywa
- KY made an alliance with UPC which gave more strength to Dr. Apollo Milton Obote.
- When Uganda got independence, Muteesa II became the first President of Uganda but without executive powers.

UGANDA PRESIDENTS SINCE INDEPENDENCE

1. Sir Edward Muteesa II – 1963-1966
2. Dr. Apollo Milton Obote 1966-1971
3. Idi Amin Dada 1971-1979
4. Yusuf Lule 13th April, 1979- 20th June, 1979 (68 days)
5. Godfrey Lukongwa Binaisa 20th June, 1979- 12th May, 1980 (327 days)
6. Paul Muwanga 12th May, 1980- 22nd May, 1980 (10 days)
- Presidential Commission 22nd May, 1980- 15th December, 1980
7. Dr. Apollo Milton Obote 17th December, 1980- 27th July, 1985
- *General Bazilio Olara-Okello 27th July, 1985-29th July, 1985 (2 days)
8. General Tito Okello 29th July, 1985- 26th January, 1986
9. Yoweri Kaguta Museveni 26th January, 1986- incumbent (elected 1996, 2001, 2006, 2011, 2016,2021)

Activity

1. Which country colonized Uganda?
.....
2. When was LEGCO formed?
.....
3. Name the first three Ugandans to be appointed to the LEGCO in 1945
 - i.
 - ii.
 - iii.
4. Give one reason why the LEGCO was formed
.....
5. Which political party led Uganda to independence?
.....
6. Write the following in full
 - a. DP
 - b. UPC
 - c. KY
 - d. UNC
7. Name the former Ugandan President who ruled twice
.....

JESUS, KING OF KINGS